2. Summary of the Industry

India's textiles sector is one of the oldest and most diverse industries in the country, with roots stretching back centuries. It spans from traditional hand-spun and handwoven clusters to sophisticated capital-intensive mills, supported by a robust base of fibres and yarns ranging from cotton, jute, silk, and wool to polyester, viscose, and acrylic.

The market for Indian textiles and apparel is projected to grow at a 10% CAGR to reach US$ 2.3 billion by 2030. India ranks among the top five global exporters in several textile categories, with exports expected to reach US$ 100 billion.

The Indian Technical Textiles market is the fifth largest in the world. The technical textiles industry was valued at US$ 29 billion in 2024 and is projected to grow to US$ 45 billion by 2026, US$ 123 billion by 2035, and US$ 309 billion by 2047.

In FY26 (April-June 2025) the total exports of textiles and apparels (incl. handicrafts) stood at US$ 9.40 billion. Ready Made Garments (RMG) category with export of US$ 4,193 million has the largest share (45%) in the total exports US$ 9.40 billion during FY26 (April-June 2025), followed by Cotton Textiles (30%, US$ 2,860 million), Man- Made Textiles (12%, US$ 1,167 million).

8. Risk Factors

1. Our Company, Promoter and Director are parties to certain legal proceedings. Any adverse decision in such proceedings may have a material adverse effect on our business, result of operations and financial conditions.
2. We do not have long term agreements for supply of our raw materials. If we are unable to procure raw materials of the required quality and quantity, at competitive prices, our business, results of operations and financial condition may be adversely affected. Majority of our raw materials are sourced from few key suppliers. Discontinuation of operations of such suppliers may adversely affect our ability to source raw materials at a competitive price.
3. Substantial portion of our revenues has been dependent upon few customers. The loss of any one or more of our would have a material effect on our business operations and profitability.

4. Our supply arrangement with a Quick-Commerce Company operates on a sell-or-return and sales-linked settlement model, exposing us to risks relating to unsold inventory, rejections and timing of payments.
5. We have no physical retail store, resulting in dependence on online channels for customer acquisition and sales.
6. Inaccuracies or discrepancies in certain statutory filings may attract regulatory scrutiny, and there can be no assurance of a favourable outcome if any adverse notice is issued.
7. There are certain instances of delays in the past with ROC/Statutory Authorities.
8. There have been some instances of delayed filing of returns and depositing of statutory dues with regulatory authorities.
9. If we are unable to manage our growth or execute our strategies effectively, our business plan and expansion may not be successful, and our business and prospects may be adversely affected.
10. We generate majority portion of sales from our operations in certain geographical regions and any adverse developments affecting our operations in this regions could have an adverse impact on our revenue and results of operations.
