2. NECESSITY AND OBJECTIVE OF THE DELISTING OFFER

2.1. In the Delisting Letter, Acquirers specified the following as the rationale for the Delisting Offer:

a) the proposed delisting would enable the members of the Promoter Group to obtain full ownership of the Company, which in turn will provide enhanced operational flexibility to support the Company's business. The company had got itself listed with the aspiration that listing will enhance its brand name and visibility and would help attract retail clients for trading and depository accounts and allied services and it had also been hoped that the increased branding will aid in attracting top talent and listing would allow a good platform for grant of options. However, though the treasury operations and proprietary trading division have done reasonably, it has been observed that listing has not brought any benefits in terms of increased branding and visibility and the company's retail trading and depository activities have not performed up to optimum levels as compared to other players in the market. Hence, in a proactive gesture, in keeping with the highest standards of corporate governance, the promoter group would like to provide an exit opportunity to public shareholders based on their independent assessment of the company's future prospects;

b) the proposed delisting will result in reduction of the ongoing substantial compliance costs and dedicated management time being incurred associated with continued listing of equity shares, which can be refocused on its business.

c) it would enhance Company's operational, financial and strategic flexibility including but not limited to corporate restructurings, acquisitions, exploring new financing structures including financial support from the members of the Promoter Group; and

d) the proposed delisting is in the interest of the Public Shareholders as it will provide them an opportunity to exit from the Company at a price determined in accordance with the SEBI Delisting Regulations, providing immediate liquidity.
